

Gail Vittori

Co-Director

Center for Maximum Potential Building Systems

8604 F.M. 969 • Austin, TX 78724

512/928-4786

gvittori@cmpbs.org

LEED Projects/Involvement:

LEED Consultant:

- City of Austin Combined Transportation & Emergency Communications Center – LEED Silver
- City of Austin Far Southeast Austin EMS Station – LEED Gold
- City of Austin City Hall – LEED Gold

USGBC Chapter/Affiliation Involvement:

Chair-Elect, USGBC Board of Directors

Chair, LEED for Healthcare core committee

Member, USGBC Central Texas-Balcones Chapter – National Board liaison

Professional Memberships:

American Society of Healthcare Engineers

Personal Narrative:

Gail Vittori is Co-Director of the Center for Maximum Potential Building Systems, a non-profit sustainable planning and design firm established in 1975. She is Chair-Elect of the U.S. Green Building Council's Board of Directors, the convener and a Co-Coordinator of the Green Guide for Health Care and Chair of the USGBC's LEED® for Healthcare core committee. Gail was a Loeb Fellow at Harvard University from 1998-1999. She is co-author, with Robin Guenther FAIA, of Sustainable Healthcare Architecture, published by Wiley, and was featured as an Innovator: Building a Greener World in TIME Magazine in March 2007.