We're changing a few things up in 2013 - and one of them is how we communicate with you.

UPDATE YOUR SUBSCRIPTIONS

#1: We're saying goodbye to newsletters and hello to digests.

These will arrive monthly and are tailored to your channel choices on usgbc.org. Make sure to choose the digest option to hear from us regularly.

TIP: Did you know that these updates are also available on your reader? Subscribe to your favorite RSS feeds on USGBC.org.

#2: We're giving you more options - and making you a USGBC insider.

Tell us more about your interests and we'll cater our emails to the topics you care about most. It's an easy way to make sure that you don't miss out on exclusive promotions, special events and insider updates.
