The Center is excited to launch a brand new Facebook page and Twitter account. These social media platforms will serve as a way for our network of advocates, volunteers, chapter members and students to engage with the Center staff on a more conversational level, and stay up-to-date on all of our happenings! In addition, Rachel Gutter, the director of the Center for Green Schools, has also launched her own Twitter account. We will be putting lots of content about the importance of green schools and how you can get involved, so be sure to check out the pages, like us, follow us and tell your friends to do the same!
