

Durability management verification

Possible 1 point

Intent

To promote enhanced durability and high performance of the building enclosure and its components and systems through appropriate design, materials selection, and construction practices.

Requirements

Have the verification team inspect and verify each measure listed in the ENERGY STAR for Homes, version 3, water management system builder checklist.