Purpose

USGBC Virginia's Leadership Awards program recognizes statewide innovation and leadership in green buildings. This high-profile event provides a platform to celebrate the extraordinary projects and people who are contributing to a more sustainable built environment in Virginia. In partnership with staff, members of this working group will assist in the development and delivery of this annual celebration.

This volunteer group primarily supports the following strategic imperative(s) of USGBC's 2017-2019 Strategic Plan:

- Ensure viability through organizational and community excellence

Goals

- Recognize 5-10 LEED certified buildings that demonstrate excellence in green building leadership
- Promote registration to see a 20% increase over the previous year's attendance
- Seek sponsorship to achieve event financial goals

Membership Roles

- Content Development
 - Identify a keynote speaker aligned with USGBC's pillars of Sustainability, Equity, Resilience, and Health & Wellness that are relevant to the local market
 - Promote registration for the awards program to eligible projects in Virginia
 - Suggest trusted green building leaders to serve as judges for the award selections
 - Present awards as appropriate
- Operation Support
 - Provide connections to local venues and other operational needs (catering, photography, printing, etc.)
 - Assist with on-site volunteer needs such as the registration table, expo hall, speaker green room, etc.
- Event Sponsorship
 - Identify organizations that would benefit from partnering with the conference
 - Share sponsorship prospectus and be familiar with the opportunities for exposure as an event sponsor
 - Connect warm leads with USGBC staff for follow up
- Event Promotion
 - Share event registration site with your network through social media
 - Send targeted invites to key industry leaders and like-minded organizations

USGBC ANTITRUST COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

Organizations such as USGBC may engage in a number of educational activities for its members and the public. For example, USGBC may collect or distribute to industry participants, customers and the public information about green building products or services. However, since organizations like the USGBC involve interaction and communications between competitors, they also are subject to scrutiny under the antitrust laws. It is the policy of USGBC to comply fully with the antitrust laws. To avoid creating any issues under the antitrust laws, the members of the USGBC should not engage in any discussions or agreements concerning the following topics either in formal meetings or informal social gatherings:

1. Prices, price changes, price quotations, bids, pricing policies, pricing philosophies, price levels, price differentials, mark-ups, discounts, or allowances;
2. Any element of price, including credit, warranties, or other terms and conditions of sale;
3. Output, production, profits or costs;
4. The customers to whom a company sells;
5. The territories in which a company sells;
6. The amount that a company pays for goods or services;
7. The selection, rejection or termination of customers or suppliers;
8. Business plans or strategies;
9. Restrictions on the development or use of technology; or
10. Exchange of any competitive information.

Please note that this statement is not complete and is only a general guide. The intent of this statement is to remind the members of the importance of continued compliance with the antitrust laws.
